2. Purpose

The Phoenix Private School takes all concerns and complaints from stakeholders very seriously. We are committed to addressing matters swiftly, fairly, transparently, and in accordance with the requirements of the Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MOEHE), including Circular 4 (2023).

We aim to:

- Resolve concerns at the earliest possible stage
- Maintain positive partnerships with parents and students
- Ensure accountability and transparency
- Learn from feedback to improve practice
- Uphold our school values in all interactions

3. Guiding Principles

In alignment with our values:

- Concerns are addressed promptly and professionally.
- All parties are treated with dignity and respect.
- Confidentiality is maintained.
- Complaints are investigated objectively and fairly.
- Retaliation against any complainant will not be tolerated.

4. Definitions

Concern – An informal expression of worry that can usually be resolved through discussion.

Complaint – A formal expression of dissatisfaction requiring investigation and a documented response.

SECTION A: PARENT & PUBLIC COMPLAINTS

5. Communication Pathway (Stage 1 – Informal Resolution)

We encourage parents to contact the most appropriate member of staff via the school Communication Tree, depending on whether the concern relates to:

- Administrative matters
- Academic provision
- Behaviour
- Health & Safety
- Safeguarding

The Communication Tree ensures that any concerns are directed promptly to the appropriate member of staff, enabling swift and effective resolution.

Matters relating to students safeguarding, wellbeing and student safety are handled by the Safeguarding and Pastoral Team to ensure they are addressed with the highest level of care and priority.

Any safeguarding, wellbeing or safety concerns involving a member of staff must be reported directly to the Principal.

For serious complaints, the school's official telephone numbers and the designated Complaints Committee email address, as mandated by the Ministry of Education and Higher Education (MOEHE), are publicly available to ensure transparency and accessibility.
